

Kedar Bahadur Adhikari
Secretary(Commerce and Supplies)
Ministry of Industry, Commerce & Supplies
Government of Nepal

Mr Kedar Bahadur Adhikari is a senior government officer who is currently the Secretary in the Ministry of Industry, Commerce and Supply, Nepal. Mr Kedar also served as the Secretary in the office of Prime Minister and Cabinet Secretariat for about 2 years. He played a key role in restructuring of current local level government and establishment of first local government office in the country. Mr Kedar played a significant role in improving economic ties between India and Nepal when he was the Minister (Economic) in Embassy of Nepal in New Delhi during 2007-2011. An expert in financial matters, Mr Kedar also trained in poverty reduction, from Zhejiang University, China, Fiscal Decentralization, at Georgia University, Financial Programming, at IMF etc. A multitasker, Mr Kedar successfully handled various additional responsibilities such as Chairman of Nepal Oil Corporation, Chairman of Nepal Telecom, Radio Nepal etc.